In a society that seems to place less and less value on quality of service it's nice to deal with someone who actually cares about his clients and their needs.

Evan is a true professional and did everything in his power to make the sale of our home and purchase of our new home a smooth transaction. If you appreciate someone who will keep you informed every step of the way, and will return your phone calls in a timely manner Evan is your guy. Even when he doesn't have any new information, if he says he's going to call you, he calls you. Evan has a clear understanding that you as a client likely don't buy and sell homes on a regular basis and understands the level of anxiety that a layman has in dealing with the purchase or sale of a home.

Evan will be the first person we call the next time we buy or sale real estate!
